I guess just the fact that I don't remember when you came says it all. Was so much a part of my life in a nutshell" (as M. would say!) It's so hard to express how special our friendship means to me. When you left and I thought about it I don't know if I'll ever be able to compare you to anyone else. We were inseparable - even the Planfield days - that was special. I don't mean to be conceited but its great to know that you feel the same way. I'm just trying to say that you are - you have been a special part of my life and I'll always be grateful for that. I don't know if I'll ever see you again but I'll always remember you as a special person to depend on. I wish I could be there (with you & Courtney) to help you celebrate your birthday - I'm sure it will be an excellent way to celebrate your special day. I'm absolutely terrific, enjoying my job, but I'm still a little nuts & I can't imagine what it would become like - even the four miles between us - there's something absolutely terrific, enjoying so close to each other, living, loving, laughing, but its awful lonely, awful sad, awful lonely, awful lonely, awful lonely

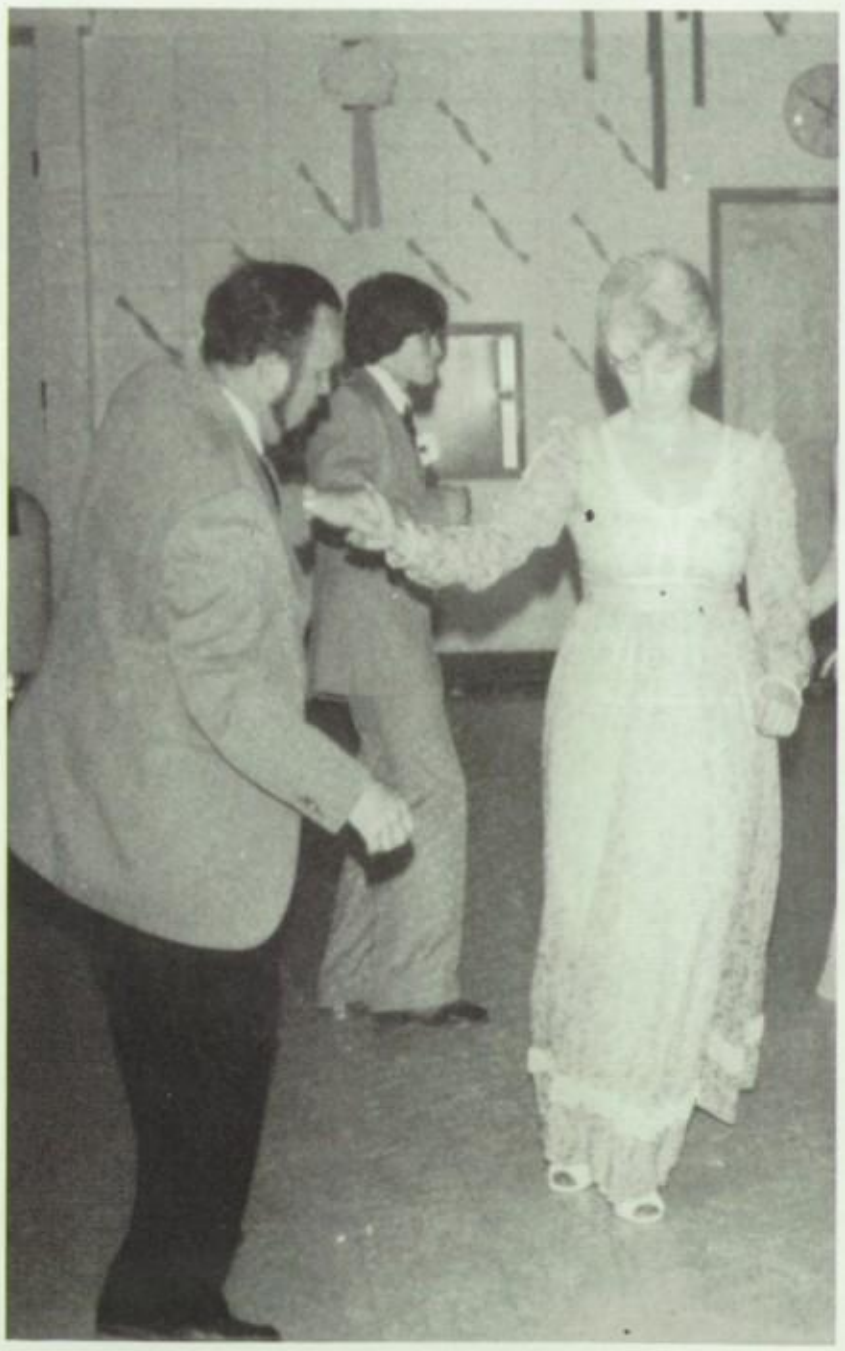
HAMMER



JUNIOR PROM 1982

The 1982 Junior Prom "Stairway to the Sky" was a night well remembered. The band, "Hammer," entertained with a variety of fast and slow dance numbers throughout the evening, providing a joyous atmosphere.

The Prom's very own King and Queen were awarded to John Nunziato and Janice Hudson. Prince and Princess were awarded to Keith Clark and Virginia Basil. Court was then presented to Matthew Dix and Karen Higgs.

With the super music, attractive decorations, and homemade refreshments the Prom of '82 was labeled a success by one and all.

Class Motto

We will always remember you.
You helped us in many ways.
You were there to make us
happy, on our sad, lonely days.

We will always remember you.
In all that we do for the good times we've had
And all we've been through

We will always remember you
We're sure by now you can see
But we ask you one question,
Will you remember the CLASS
OF '83!!

Yearbook Staff

The Yearbook Staff has been having a great time working on the yearbook this year. Our editor is Lynn Williams, she has worked very hard to put everything in order. This year the seniors went out and sold ads to the community and surrounding communities to earn money for the yearbook. We hope you enjoy the yearbook now and in the future when you look back at it.

Band and Chorus

Under the guidance of Mrs. Stone, the music director, the band and chorus have flourished to become a professional unit. It has been an active year as the two groups worked together to perform at concerts and assemblies. Also included in the year's activities was a successful drive to raise money for the music uniforms. Other events include an exchange concert with Williamstown.

ANOTHER ONE WALKING AROUND NAKED! WHAT'S THE WORLD MING TO?

Varsity Soccer

Following the lead of Central Vermont League All Stars Matt Dix and Greg Barcomb, the 1982 Twinfield soccer team enjoyed a fine season. The 8th seated 6 and 6 season culminated with a tough loss to Whitcomb in Division IV playdowns. Highlights of the season included a 1-0 win, home, over strong Craftsbury and last game of the season 2-0 win at Concord. It should be noted that first year goalkeeper Jeff Cook registered 6 shutouts. Sophomore right wing Bob Modica had a 7 goal season while Junior Gared Henry received Honorable Mention at the League All-Star picks.

The team had a very exciting season despite having 5 ties. Their final record ended up 5 wins – 5 losses – 5 ties. The girls were enthusiastic and very competitive. They can be proud of a very successful season. We lose 9 seniors this year and we wish them all Good Luck!

We hope to see the eighth graders out for high school field hockey next year.

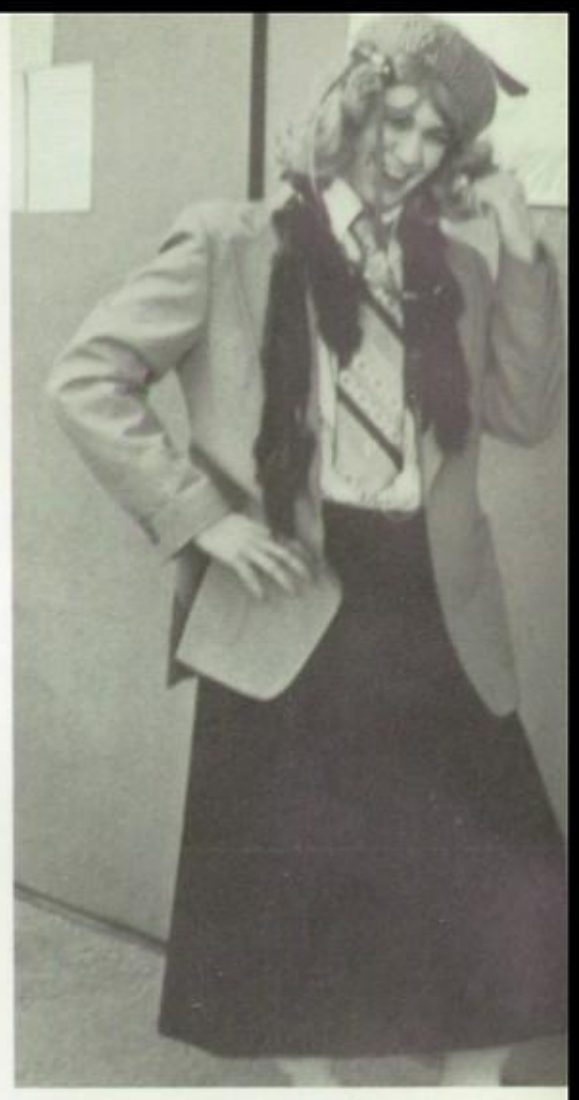
This year has flown by so fast and so many memorable events have happened. Remember when Bob Rondelli came for mini course and showed us how to defend ourselves or the time Mr. Gostlant smelled like skunk? Who could forget that hilarious yearbook assembly with those high school pictures of famous people, or the boy's basketball team's stunning victory over Sacred Heart. It seems like last week when Santa came to visit the junior high during lunch and his little elves sang along. When you look back on 1983, think of the one-act-play, "The Counting People," that went to the finals, and most of all think of friendship and happiness.

The senior class is eagerly anticipating June 15, 1983. We'd just like to say that we will always remember the friendliness that was shared by everyone. We will never forget all the rowdy and serious moments we have shared with you. We are anxious to go our own ways, yet we are sad at having to leave the best friends in our life. We hope the future senior classes have as much fun as we did!

Good luck classes of '84, '85, '86, '87, '88, '89!!



We would like to thank all the patrons and advertisers for their support in helping to make this yearbook possible. We hope you have enjoyed it as much as we enjoyed making it.

Karma,
Hi! How are things going, good as usual I hope.
I think you are a real nice person even if you do like the Brewers, who are going to be in last place.
We will have to play more pins pons and pool together this summer. I have had alot of fun going to the movies and talking on the phone with you these last few weeks, you always cheer me up even if I am in a bummer mood or extremely tired, I have never seen you in a bad mood. I would have signed by my picture but they are all so bad I am too embarresed to. I hope we can see more of each other in the future because I think you are a terrific person and I like you alot. Have a great summer and don't waste all of your money on that difficult game (Tron). Keep being you.

love Tracy

Dear Karma

I've only known you for five months and we've grown very close to one another. So close that I can't stop thinking of you. Sometimes I feel an big warmth come into my eyes. My eyes fill with tears because I'm so afraid of loosing you. Its hard to believe that I Deborah Smith has actually found some one that I can trust and love but loosing me would kill me. This summer will all ways be hard for me. Its like loosing a part of my life. a life which means a lot to me. I can't describe how I feel. Well anyways your a funny person. When ever I'm down, in your cute manner ya cheer me up. (always) I have changed a lot since you've moved here I've opened up to other people and have learned to say . . love. This is the hardest word to say in the whole word. I've learned to care for your feelings and I even talk on the telephone every night. I never used to talk on the telephone but now I do for hours. Every night at home I tie up the telephone and everyone gets impatient with me. Karma I feel you've grown in so many ways - you are a very pretty young woman, you care about others, you have gained many new friends, even very close ones but karma the thing you have improved the most in is opening up to others, speacilly me. When you get older your going to be very very speacil to some individual (boy friend). Once they see how speacil and loving you are they are never going to dodge of you. Hey sweetie, you better save your self for someone very speacil. you better learn to control your hormones or we'll have to have another talk at 11:00 at night. That was pretty funny. I'll never forget that night. You told me so much about your sex life. and remember that day the woman was at your door and she thought I was your mother -
